Dear Friends,

On behalf of the City of Los Angeles, congratulations to St. Andrew’s Society of Los Angeles on their 90th Anniversary.

Since it was established in 1930, St. Andrew’s Society has worked within Los Angeles and greater Southern California as a charitable organization that preserves and promotes Scottish history and culture. The Society has made contributions to trade, science, and the arts throughout the course of its history, and has worked with many organizations to ensure the health of all Angelenos.

I want to commend St. Andrews for the significant financial contributions they have made over the past few months to Project Angel Food, Keck Street Medicine and LAUSD Grab & Go Food Bank. These donations have helped protect our most vulnerable during this difficult time of COVID-19. Thank you for showing L.A. love.

I send my best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

ERIC GARCETTI
Mayor
